

The confidential relationship that we establish with our clients is an important value of the service, which we provide.

From another side we are obliged from the applicable accreditation standards to publish particular information.

If a legal entity or physical person wish to receive information on the current status of certification of a company which they think is certified by Certima, they should send an email to info@certima.org with the name and address of the company as well as description of the respective product.

The requester will receive an email with the current status of the certificate of the requested company as soon as possible.